Career Exploration Web-based Opportunities For All Students

Find a Career That Fits You

1. www.bridges.com

Bridges is a comprehensive, Internet-based career development system. Articles are published and up-dated daily. Questions can be e-mailed to the research department with a return response within one working day. This program is available year-round and can be accessed from home (see your guidance department for the necessary codes). Bridges offers to the student/parent all of the following: awareness, exploration, planning, transition, and instructional support tools.
